HON. Geo. Brainerd, of Storey
HON. W. J. Westerfield, of LyonFor United States Senator,
WM. M. STEWART, of Ormsby.For Congressman,

CHAS. H. BELKNAP, of Storey.For University Regent, long term,
HON. H. L. FISH, of Washoe.For University Regent, short term,
CHAS. C. MACK, of Storey.Misquotes the Law.

When an Attorney General of the State of Nevada steps aside from the path of his official duties to tell the Republican voters how to handle the electorate out of the State in the interest of his party, it may be paid off by suggesting that something is wrong, but when the Civil Liberties of every man's power in the State are to be taken away, explain the step he does, and there is certainly that which is very bad indeed. In his ne-wspaper, "The County," Chas. C. Mack, Victory General, 3 Street, says:

"It is high time for a moderate and upright man to speak up for the County Chancery of the Nevada Constitution. This State should remain as it was when it was organized, or it will be ruined."

On page 25 of the "Advertiser," the caption under a moderate and upright man to speak up for the County Chancery of the Nevada Constitution, this State should remain as it was when it was organized, or it will be ruined.

In quoting the law Mr. Torreyson leaves out the word "form" entirely, and it is this particular word that makes the law effective. To further sustain his argument he says:

"In quoting the law Mr. Torreyson leaves out the word "form" entirely, and it is this particular word that makes the law effective. To further sustain his argument he says:

The word "copies" as used in the statute is fully satisfied by a ballot which contains all the matter found upon the original ballot, though such matter may occupy a different position upon the paper.

Now if the names of candidates are printed in a different position on the sample ballot than they occupy upon the original, it is clear to the densest intelligence that the same "form" of ticket is not carried over. The above is merely a statement of fact and a correct quotation from the law and from Mr. Torreyson's letter. The Appeal makes no further statement of the matter except to allow the voter to figure out for himself whether Mr. Torreyson's course results from ignorance or design.

For Business Men to Consider.

The men on Ormsby's Silver County ticket are men of more than average brains and rare fitness.

Logan and Folsoin have been there before and know the ropes. Mr. Reynolds is one of the shrewdest politicians in the country, quick in lightning and his experience in many State conventions has made him an able parliamentarian.

Washoe county will make its usual assault on our public buildings this season, and if it could catch Owyhee county out with three inspectors and men and a delegation not in accord with the majority of the Legislature, she would make short work of our public institutions. A Republican delegation of inexperienced men would not be worth the powder to blow them up on such an occasion.

Business men are already considering this phase of the question and will vote the Stewart ticket.

If a Republican Legislative ticket is elected from Ormsby, they will cut but a sorry figure in the Legislature. They will be very lonely amid the silver representatives, who will be largely in the majority. Ormsby can expect nothing from the State this year unless she sends men in accord with the dominant party of Nevada.
